NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY. Some time ago a dispute arose between the Rev. Edward MacMinn, pastor of the Summit Avenue Baptist Church, Jersey City, and a part of the congregation, but it was apparently settled. troubles broke out again, and yesterday Mr. MacMinn informed the trustees and deacons that he would resign. He said he thought matters had come to such a pass that harmony could be restored only by his withdrawal. He also has a private reason, which is his health. He must seek milder climate. Objection is made to Mr. Macbecause he did not endeavor to promote a mission school which the church established some time ago in the Marion district. Mr. MacMinn says the church was not able to support a mission Another source of trouble is the removal of Miss Nettle Hains from the pastor's family. parents died when she was only a child, and Mr. and Mrs. MacMinn adopted her. A short time ago she developed consumption and the family phy-sician said she must go to the South. Miss Hains objected, but as it was the best thing that could be done for her, Mr. MacMinn and the physician insisted and Miss Hains was sent away. The insisted and Miss Hains was sent away. The King's Daughters of the church, of which society she was a member, circulated a story, as Mr. MacMinn charges, that Miss Hains was sent away because Mr. and Mrs. MacMinn were afraid that the disease was contagious, and since then, as Mr. MacMinn further charges, he and Mrs. MacMinn have been subjected to various annoyances by the King's Daughters. He was tired of it all, he said, and he saw no way to end it except by resigning. The argument in the case of the disputed tunnel to be made by the New-Jersey Junction Raliroad Company, under the Pennsylvania Raliroad tracks, at Point of Rocks, Jersey City, was ended before Chancellor McGhi yesterday. The writs are returnable Saturday morning before Justice Lippincott. Ex-Judge R. B. Seymour, on behalf of Horace Farrier, a taxpayer, obtained another rule from Justice Lippincott to show cause why a writ of certiorari should not issue for a review of the water contract.

A committee appointed by a meeting on Monday evening of opponents of the water awards is making preparations to ask for another writ. Congressman Thomas McEwan is chairman of the committee. Residents of the township adjoining Newark ship. Residents of the township adjoining Newark had applied to the court for an injunction, on the ground that the city has no right to acquire property for such purposes outside the city limits. The city's counsel contended that it had such right, and that, moreover, the Chancery Court had no jurisdiction. The bill of complaint was dismissed.

The life-size bronze group presented to the city by Dr. J. A. Coies will be placed at the north end of Washington Park.

THEY FOUND DYNAMITE IN THE HAY

AUTHORITIES INVESTIGATING THE CAUSE OF THE FIRE IN MR. ROCKEFELLER'S BARN AT TARRYTOWN HAVE DECIDED IT WAS

OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN. The fire insurance underwriters and the local authorities who have been making an investigation as to the cause of the fire on the property of J. D. Rockefeller, at Tarrytown, have decided that the firing of the barn and outbuildings was of incendiary origin. The investigation proves that the fire started in a small hay loft in the rear of the barn. beneath which, at a depth of not over three feet, was stored enough dynamite and giant powder to destroy all the buildings in the neighborhood. It was almost a miracle that these explosives were not reached by the flames. The hay was undoubtedly aturated with kerosene oil, as empty oil cans were saturated with kerosene oil, as empty oil cans were found in the woods. The investigators also find that the person or persons who started the fire were acquainted with the place. It is thought that discharged employes were the incendiaries.

Mr. Rockefelier has telegraphed his superintendent to offer a reward of $1,000 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the firebugs.

MISS EARL HAD THE WEARER ARRESTED IN BROADWAY.

For some time actresses, actors and others emyed by the loss of various articles of wearing their dressing-rooms. One of those to suffer was Miss Virginia Earl, the actress, who lives at the Bartholdi Hotel. Some five weeks ago Miss Earl lost a cape and some other property from her dressing-room. Last evening she was walking along Broadway, and at Thirtieth-st. noticed a woman was the one she had lost. She summoned Detective McVay and had the woman arrested. At the West Thirtieth-st. station Miss Earl identified the cape as her property. The prisoner gave her name as Jennie Baldwin, twenty-seven years old, a cook, but refused to give her address. She said her brother had given her the cape. She was locked up.

J. W. BOOKWALTER ON POLITICS.

THE CAMPAIGN IN OHIO-MR. CLEVELAND AND A THIRD TERM.

J. W. Bookwalter, of Ohio, was at the Brunswick yesterday. He is one of the strongest Democrats in his State. He was nominated for Governor by his party some years ago, but was defeated by Charles Foster in a memorable campaign. Bookwalter is not sanguine over the result of this year's election. He said in speaking of the fight that Mr. Campbell is making in Ohio:

"I knew that Campbell would be nominated. There was nothing that could stop him. I do not think that he wanted the nomination, and it was forced on him. As to his chance of winning, that is problematical. I do not think that he will hedge on the money question, as Hardin did in Kentucky. He may be hurt by this, but the great harm to als prospects will come from the Democrats in Ohio who hate outside interference. Mr. Campbell's gomination was forced by the Administration, and that is known to a great many independent Demochat is known to a great many independent Demo-rats who will jot be coerced. The interference of the Administration in local affairs in Ohio will doubtless hurt the party."

In regard to a third term for President Cleveland, Mr. Bookwaiter said:

"I have no doubt that Cleveland wants a third term. He may get the nomination. He seems to be a man of destiny for sure. It all depends to a large extent upon the character of business in the next year. If business keeps good people will say that it was his policy that did it. If it is poor he will be blamed. Cleveland may make a strong fight, but I do not think that he can ever be elected for another turn."

Mr. Bookwalter is going to pass the winter in india. He expects to start soon for Burman for a long rest, and he says that he wants to get for tway from everything political.
